

The local KLOVE radio station (88.9 FM) is a positive influence to the City of OKC and surrounding areas it reaches. This station reflects the Christian and biblical reason of life as well as Family quality music. I and my family and many friends are pleased the way KLOVE is operated. This is also one of the few radio stations that the kids can listen to with out foul language content being used.